

DIRECTOR

October 18, 1976

Dear Don,

I was concerned about your comments that the leaks [redacted] may have come from PFIAB. I checked with the PFIAB Secretariat and was advised that PFIAB had not been briefed on [redacted]. That doesn't mean, of course, that individual members have not received a [redacted] briefing. In a discussion on the NIEs, there was some brief mention of [redacted] before the PFIAB. I doubt we will ever find where these vicious leaks came from, but I did want to at least run down the possibility that a full-scale PFIAB briefing might have resulted in the leaks.

I enjoyed the visit there at Bill Clements' office the other day. I think a lot was accomplished. There certainly are community differences on [redacted] remaining, but the meeting, in my view, laid to rest a lot of questions about the integrity of the process. This I think is very positive.

Sincere regards,

George Bush
